W: Well, let's have a look shall we... mmm ok... yesterday morning we started off the camp with some brief introductions and some very interactive "get to know you" activities in the Residents Hall, as we have so many students of various backgrounds this year. Our senior academic staff member Sarah Bullimore was quite impressed! This was followed by lunch and then our first English class.

Announcer: The name of the location of the introduction activities on Monday morning is in the "Residents Hall." So you write "Residents Hall." Now we shall begin. You should answer questions as you listen because you will not hear the recording a second time. Now, listen to the conversation and answer questions 1-6.

W: Welcome to Indian Head Holiday Retreat. I'm Wendy, the Director of Studies here at BLI Australia. Now, you have just joined our summer school program a little late. Nina isn't it?

N: Ya, actually I had some important family problems so I had to take a later flight from Europe sorry.

W: Yes, that's fine. Your agent clearly explained everything to me.

N: Thank you so much. It's so nice to see the sunny Australian weather! Although I must admit I am rather sleepy still from that long flight.

W: Well, don't worry. In addition to your studies in English, of course you will have a number of chances to enjoy and soak up the relaxed way of life here in Australia. Let me go through your timetable. As today is Tuesday, you have only missed the first day.

N: Ok great. Anything important so far?

W: Well, let's have a look shall we... mmm ok... yesterday morning we started off the camp with some brief introductions and some very interactive "get to know you" activities in the Residents Hall, as we have so many students of various backgrounds this year. Our senior academic staff member Sarah Bullimore was quite impressed! This was followed by lunch and then our first English class.

N: Ok I see, and today? I don't have any information.

W: Well, it's about 8:45am now, so this morning you will meet in about 15mins at the main gate to join the first of our outdoor activities with Mrs. Joan Lancaster for an "English nature hike" to the top of Indian Head.

N: Oh, I don't know if I like the sound of that!

W: No no... don't worry, it's nothing too rigorous. We stop off for morning tea and take it very slow and easy. But please bring your water bottle and hat. After lunch, you will then go back to class for our Academic Writing Workshop, starting at 1:00pm in Classroom D with your Academic English tutor Mrs. Lois Campbell.

W: Now, tomorrow. First of all, is your English class from 8:30-11:30am, followed by lunch. Straight after lunch you will be able to take part in a volleyball game down on
